THE ASSOCIATION OF CONSULTING ENGINEERS OF IRELAND (ACEI)

The ACEI was founded in 1938. The Association is the representative body in Ireland of professional engineers in all branches of engineering disciplines including civil, structural, mechanical and electrical services and process engineering.

Consulting Engineers offer their skills and experience to clients requiring independent engineering advice and judgement. Virtually all of the significant firms in the Republic of Ireland and some in Northern Ireland are represented in the Association.

THE ACEI ANNUAL REVIEW AND DIRECTORY

The ACEI Annual Review and Directory, reviews the winners of the "Excellence Awards" and charts the very significant contribution each has made in shaping the development of the main engineering disciplines. It is a key resource for our members and includes a comprehensive editorial section detailing the work of the Consulting Engineer, alongside a directory of all members of the ACEI. The Review and Directory is a quality A4, 180 page, full colour publication with a circulation of 2,500

RATE CARD CONDITIONS OF ADVERTISING

1. An advertisement is accepted on the understanding that the relationship between the Advertiser and the Publisher is governed by the conditions set out below. Unless specifically approved in writing by the Publisher, the conditions stipulated on an Advertiser's order form or anywhere else shall be void.
2. For the purpose of these conditions, "Advertiser" shall refer to the contractual Principal, that is the party responsible for payment of charges arising from the publication of an advertisement. Where appropriate, "advertisement" includes a loose or bound-in insert.
3. The Publisher reserves the right to refuse any advertisement submitted for publication.
4. The Publisher reserves the right to amend advertisement copy where absolutely necessary. If the Publisher considers it necessary to modify the space or alter the date or position of insertion, the Advertiser will have the right to cancel if such arrangements are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an emergency or circumstances beyond the Publisher's control. Where the advertisement forms part of a series order, the liability of the Advertiser shall be limited to the pro-rata cost of those advertisements already published.
5. In the event of any error, misprint or omission in the printing of an advertisement or part of an advertisement, except where attributable to an act or default by the Advertiser or his agents or where covered by Clause 4 above, the Publisher will either re-insert the advertisement or make an adjustment to the cost. No re-insertion or adjustment will be made where the error, misprint or omission does not materially detract from the advertisement. In no circumstances shall the total liability of the Publisher for any error, misprint or omission exceed the agreed net cost of the advertisement.
6. The Publisher cannot accept liability for any errors due to inaccurate copy instructions.
Charges will be made to the Advertiser where the printers are involved in extra production work owing to acts or defaults of the Advertiser or his agents. These charges will be in accordance with the rates current at that date.
7. Advertisement rates are subject to revision at any time and individual orders are accepted on condition that the price binds the Publisher only in respect of the next issue to go to press.
8. The Advertiser, where an agency, may not recharge a client for space at an increased rate, unless with the Publisher's written consent.
9. If written copy instructions are not received by the agreed copy date, no guarantee can be given that proofs will be supplied or corrections made and the Publisher reserves the right to repeat the most appropriate copy.
10. All advertisements are accepted and published on the representation by the agency and advertiser that they are authorised to grant the right to publish them and that such publication will not violate any law or infringe upon any right of any person or entity in consideration of the publication of advertisements.
11. Any condition on contracts, orders, or copy instructions, including, without limitation, those involving the placement of advertising within the publication such as page location, competitive separation, placement facing editorial copy, or requests for editorial mention, shall be treated as a request only. The Publisher's inability or failure to comply with any such condition shall not relieve the agency or advertiser of the obligation to pay for the advertising.
12. The advertiser and agency are jointly and severally liable for the payment of invoices and all other obligations in connection with advertising published hereunder.
13. Invoices are rendered on or about the issue/distribution date and are due thirty days following invoice date.
14. If an Advertiser cancels the balance of a contract he relinquishes any right to the series discount to which he was previously entitled and advertisements will be paid for at the appropriate rate.
15. For all publications, at least 14 day's notice prior to publication date is required to stop or suspend a monotone insertion. At least 21 day's notice prior to publication date is required to stop or suspend a colour insertion.
16. Copy must be legal, decent, honest and truthful. Should it become apparent that this is not the case, the Publisher reserves the right to suspend the advertisement, in which case no claim on the part of the Advertiser for damages or breach of contract shall arise.
17. The Advertiser will indemnify the Publisher fully in respect of any costs, damages or losses arising directly or indirectly from the publication of an advertisement, where such an advertisement conformed with the copy instructions supplied by the Advertiser. The Publisher will consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such claims should be handled.
18. The placing of an order by an Advertiser constitutes an assurance that all necessary authority and permission has been secured for the use in the advertisement of a pictorial representation of or of words attributable to a living person.
19. If so required, the Advertiser must disclose the identity of the client and reveal the nature of the product/service to be advertised. In the event of the Advertiser failing to comply with such a request, the Publisher reserves the right to cancel the advertisement, in which case no claim on the part of the Advertiser for damages or breach of contract shall arise.
20. If it is intended to include a competition or a special offer within an advertisement, full details should be submitted at the time of booking.
21. In accepting financial advertisements, the Publisher does so on the understanding that their copy content, authorisation and placing have been processed in accordance with the State's legal requirements.
22. The copyright on artwork/copy contributed to an advertisement by the Publisher shall be vested in the Publisher.
23. The Advertiser's property and artwork, etc are held at his risk and should be insured by him against loss or damage from whatever cause. The Publisher reserves the right to destroy all artwork which has been in his custody for six months from the date of its last appearance.
24. Notwithstanding anything in the above which may provide to the contrary, neither the Publisher nor the Advertiser shall be liable to one another for any loss or damage, consequential or otherwise, caused by or arising out of any Act of State, strike of employees, lock-out, trade dispute, enemy action, rioting, civil commotion, fire, force majeure, Act of God or other similar contingency beyond the control of either party.
25. These conditions and all other express terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the Laws of the Republic of Ireland.
